

Reliable Low-Maintenance, Own-Root Roses

For North Florida:

- Based on the Quincy UF study initiated in 2008 and further evaluations/observations to date:
 - Knock Out® 'Radrazz'
 - Pink Double Knock Out® 'Radtkopink'
 - Double Knock Out® 'Radtko'
 - Louis Philippe
 - Mutabilis
 - Spice
 - Mrs. B.R.Cant

- Based on on-site Star Roses/Conard-Pyle evaluations:
 - Milwaukee's Calatrava™ 'Radfragwhite' PPAF
 - Tahitian Treasure™ 'Radtreasure' PPAF (aka Salmon Crossover)
 - Thrive!® Seashell 'Radgor' PPAF
 - Tequila Supreme™ 'Meikokan'
 - Thrive!™ 'Sprothrive'
 - Carefree Celebration™ 'Radral'
 - Crimson Meidland® 'Meizerbil'
 - Carefree Spirit™ 'Meizmea'
 - Dee-Lish®
 - Look-A-Likes® BougainFeelya 'Meickinava'

For Central Florida

- Based on the Plant City UF study initiated in 2008 and further evaluations/observations to date:
 - Louis Philippe
 - Mrs. B. R. Cant
 - Spice
 - Smith's Parrish (white)
 - Not as robust, but worth planting: Mutabilis, Duchesse de Brabant, Old Blush

For South Florida

- Based on the Ft. Pierce UF Study initiated in 2008 (two years of evaluation):
 - Mrs. B. R. Cant
 - Louis Philippe
 - Spice
 - Knock out®
 - Belinda's Dream
 - Carefree Beauty

- See also: UF Extension publications regarding roses in South Florida